Mondays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Toowoomba and this Mondays meeting is a rerun of the Sunday meeting which was abandoned due to the wet weather striking Queensland and the whole of the country. Early money wise there is very little around for this meeting which sends the message quite clearly that punters are unsure of this meeting so it would be best to play this one by ear using a certain level of caution when approaching this meeting today. Orange and quite surprisingly there is early betting interest in this meeting today so I am quite happy to suggest this one may go well so fingers are crossed for the right luck. And finally Echuca and the early money is really decent for a Monday and there does honestly look to be some very good chances involved here today so remaining open minded with our chances but as always I will advise a little caution as Monday country Victorian meetings can sometimes throw some unusual results so use your head and critically think.

Mondays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Murtoa and the early money for the 1st 3 races is Good and races 1 and 3 look to be the most predictable so they are good chances with race 2 marked as open so a little uncertain so luck will be needed with races 4 onward's the early money is Good and there is value and there are decent prospects engaged in these later races so quite hopeful. Moruya and the early money for the 1st 2 races is Good and they both look like favorable races so hopefully it will be a great start to the day with race 3 the early money is just OK and this looks an achievable race but a little luck will be required with races 4 onward's the early money is OK and there are some positives with these races so very hopeful with the right luck. Cessnock and the early money for the 1st 3 races is Strong which is unusual for a Monday and races 1 and 3 look really obvious with race 2 being a little more open so hoping for some luck here with races 4 onward's the early money is OK and again these later races do have some definite prospects so quite keen to see what happens here this afternoon.

Mondays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Scone and the early money is OK for a Monday and nothing about the 1st 3 races is clear cut so hopeful but a little touch of luck will be needed to navigate these early races with success with races 4 onward's the early money is OK and there is potential with these later races with some value available but as its Monday a touch of lady luck will be needed. Mildura and the early money for the 1st 3 races is strong and race 1 looks like the favorites to take if it wants it, race 2 looks to be fought out between either of the top 2 selections and race 3 looks to be an open race so a touch of luck may be need with races 4 onward's the early money is strong and there are some good chances engaged today but it does not look clear cut so I feel a touch of luck is going to be required so hopeful but a tad cautious.

Mondays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Wangaratta and the early money is solid for a Monday and the meeting does look to have quite a bit of promise and I am really hoping the day does turn out in the positive so I am generally happy with today's selections. Wagga and the early money for the 1st 3 races is low but even so I don't really think there will be any unsuspected surprises with the favored runners proving the best option or so I hope with races 4 onward's the early money is good so I am expecting some decent results so hopeful and optimistic for these races today. Cessnock and the early money for the 1st 3 races is low which is expected for a Monday but again even so I think that the favored runners should win the 1st 3 races fingers crossed for luck with races 4 onward's the early money is again low so I would watch the results carefully for any betting patterns and make a move from there so hopeful but not that confident. And finally Northam and the early money is low really low but on the upside there are many favored chances with positive hopes today so this meeting may surprise in a good way and that is the hope.

Total Cost: $13 buys a 5% share of the dividend.

Mondays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Grafton and the early money is light but even so I think its fair to say it really should be a favored runners day so watching with some sense of confidence and optimism. Hamilton and the early money is OK for a Monday meeting and on paper it does look interesting and does have some potential but I would be playing it by ear and watching the results to see if any betting patterns form so I am optimistic but also cautious at the same time. Dubbo and the early money is OK and for a country Monday meeting there is potential so the program is worth a watch so approaching it with some interest.
