- The Top 5 Suggested Bets below are the best bets of the day I think are of the best value and they are put there with the absolute clear intention that they will win, but if this happens or not is up to the laws of chance and the elements of luck & fate.

1. Special Suggested Bets Of The Day:

Pt Macquarie Race 3 Banker Exacta:

2 / 5, 8, 1

So its 2 for 1st
and 5, 8, 1 for 2nd.

Total Cost: $12 buys a 400% share of the dividend.

2. Where The Money Is: Those runners which stand out as being well supported early.

Sunshine Coast Race 7 No 4 Crab Boy at $8.50 and there is enough early money support for this one to make me a little interested so might be worth a watch.

Final Result - Finished 4th

3. Best Longshot's Of The Day:

Bendigo Race 9 No 9 Birds Of Tokyo at $12.00 and someone is pretty keen on this one early in betting so might be worth a look.

The stable has the following runners today at the Sunshine Coast.

Race 6 No 4: Streets Better at $9.00

Race 8 No 6: Lady Eighty Eight at $3.20

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Bendigo and the early money for the 1st 3 races is just fair so I would tread a little carefully early as punters seem a little uncertain about where to place there money with races 4 onward's the early money is strong so high hopes for these races and quite optimistic. Pt Macquarie and the early money for the 1st 3 races is moderate but there might be promise here early so stay keen with races 4 onward's the early money is OK and there does really look to be some good chance engaged so keeping an open mind about this meeting as there is potential here today. Sunshine Coast and the early money for the 1st 3 races is OK and I don't think there will be too many upsets in these early races with the favored runners looking to be the best chances with races 4 onward's the early money is very good so there might be promise looming so feeling quite good about these races today. Devonport and the early money is fair and generally I am happy with the selections for these early races so optimistic with just an ounce of caution with races 4 onward's the early money is light so some degree of caution may be best advised for this meeting. Muswellbrook and the early money for the 1st 3 races is OK and there could quite possibly be a good start to the day at this meeting and that is the plan with races 4 onward's the early money is OK and again this is a meeting today with prospects as there are of lot of good chances engaged so remaining positive. And finally Kalgoorlie and the early betting action is very low so a certain degree of careful caution may be needed to navigate this meeting.

- The Top 5 Suggested Bets below are the best bets of the day I think are of the best value and they are put there with the absolute clear intention that they will win, but if this happens or not is up to the laws of chance and the elements of luck & fate.

1. Special Suggested Bets Of The Day:

Swan Hill Race 8 Multi Exacta:

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Swan Hill and the early money for the 1st 3 races is light as you would expect for an early start time today but in all fairness really the 1st 3 favorites should on even footing win so we may get off to a good start at Swan Hill and we shall see what happens with races 4 onward's the early money is strong so feeling a little optimistic about these races. Edenhope and the early money for the 1st 3 races is low but even so I still expect the favorite runners to stand out here early and perform well with races 4 onward's the money is OK and punters look to be chancing there arm so there might be value to be found in these races. Sunshine Coast and the 1st 3 races are low in early betting money but even so I doubt there will be any real surprises so it should be a good start here today fingers crossed with races 4 onward's the early money is steady and there are a lot of short priced chances which are expected to go well so there might be an upside to this meeting. Sapphire Coast and the early money is low and I am a little unsure about this meeting but as always hopeful for the best but I would use a little caution and use the results as a guide. Hawkesbury and Hobart and the early money is really low so I would watch the results for any patterns and go forward from there so hopeful but a little cautious as well with both of these meetings. And finally Kalgoorlie and the early betting money is low but I would not discard this meeting as I think it does have potential good prospects.

- The Top 5 Suggested Bets below are the best bets of the day I think are of the best value and they are put there with the absolute clear intention that they will win, but if this happens or not is up to the laws of chance and the elements of luck & fate.

1. Special Suggested Bets Of The Day:

Final Result: Finished 4th

3. Best Longshot's Of The Day:

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Toowoomba and the early money is soft for the 1st 4 races but in all fairness the favored runners do look to carry the best option with races 5 onward's the money is OK to good with punters looking for value in these races in this reflects in the selections so hopeful of the best. Devonport and the early betting interest for the 1st 3 races is soft so treat these early races with some caution with races 4 onward's the money is again so take these races on trust so hopeful of the best results as usual but a little bit cautious about this meeting at the same time. Ballarat and the betting interest for the 1st 3 races is good and I expect some decent results early with just the right luck needed with races 4 onward's the early money is strong and this meeting is the pick of the day and expectant of a decent afternoon so fingers are crossed and feeling good. Murwillumbah and the early betting interest for the 1st 3 races is soft but I would not expect too many huge surprises early so feeling OK about these early races with more with races 4 onward's the early money is strong so will be watching these later races with interest. Bathurst and the early money for the 1st 3 races is really soft so some level of caution may be needed with races 4 onward's again the early money is soft so I would again apply a level of caution here today. Penola and the early money is pretty OK and punters seem to be looking for value on this card and I hope they are right but I would watch the results a little to see if any betting patterns form and go from there. Alice Springs and the early money is zero but on the upside there really are a lot of favored runners at this meeting which should win so may surprise. And finally Pinjarra and the early betting interest is low and I am not keen so take this meeting completely on trust.

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Alice Springs and the early betting interest is slim actually closer to zero more than anything else so take on trust and watch the results closely for any betting patterns which may hint at potential returns. Geelong and the early betting money is light for the 1st 3 races and then things start to hot up so it might be mindful to keep your eyes on these later races. Goulburn and the early betting interest is good so this meeting might pull some good surprises so don't discard. Sunshine Coast and the early betting is mixed so play a little cautious with this meeting as it may throw some unwanted surprises. Gunnedah and there is early betting interest in this meeting so might be worth having a look at more closely. Strathalbyn and the early betting interest is just OK and to be fair there are quite a few short priced commodities engaged today which should win but I would be watching the results closely to see if any betting patterns emerge. Hobart and the early betting interest is light and I would take this meeting completely on trust so caution advised. And finally Kalgoorlie and the early money is light but really the 1st 4 favorites should win the 1st 4 races.

- The Top 5 Suggested Bets below are the best bets of the day I think are of the best value and they are put there with the absolute clear intention that they will win, but if this happens or not is up to the laws of chance and the elements of luck & fate.

1. Special Suggested Bets Of The Day:

3. Best Longshot's Of The Day:

Sunshine Coast Race 4 No 10 Luvyulongtime at $51.00 and there is support for this one at the long odds but I would only chance it for the place at $11.50 and it is having its first race start today so may show something.

Total Cost: $13 buys a 5% share of the dividend.

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Nowra and the early money is OK and there is a little interest in this meeting today which is unusual so might be worth a watch as country meetings can sometimes throw some unexpected value. Grafton and the early money is just OK and I am a bit uncertain about this meeting so watch the results to see if any betting patterns occur so a little caution is advised. Bendigo and the early money is strong so have high hopes for this meeting which contains plenty of potential with just the right bit of luck needed. Devonport and the early money is flat so some caution might be suitably advised. Casterton and the early money is good and this meeting may be a surprise packet so watch closely. Sunshine Coast and the early money was not as good as I expected for a Sunday so keep your eyes on the results for any betting patterns to occur and then go forward from there with a little caution advised. And finally Kalgoorlie and there is zero early betting interest so I would take this meeting completely on trust with caution advised.

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Ballarat and the early betting interest is good and I am predicting an even day without that many surprises as punters seem to think they have a handle on today's card. Sunshine Coast and the early betting money is strong so I am keen on this meeting for numerous reasons so keep a close eye on the results and move forward from there. Launceston and the early money is OK and we seem to always have a bit of luck with tasmanian meetings so why should today be any different so approaching today with some optimism. Gawler and again the early money is OK and I cannot foresee any real bad things happening today at this meeting so I am approaching it with a mixed optimism. Queanbeyan and there is some betting interest in this meeting today which is a little unusual and there does look to be value within the selections so hoping for the best. Bairnsdale and the early betting interest is low so not that keen on today's meeting but stranger things have happened. Parkes and the early betting interest is low so take this meeting completely on trust with some caution highly advised. And finally Kalgoorlie and there is little early betting interest so treat this meeting with caution and take completely on trust watching the results as you go for any patterns which may emerge.

Total Cost: $13 buys a 5% share of the dividend.

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook:

Dubbo and there is early betting interest in this meeting so will be watching this meeting closely as it just may have some potential. The Sunshine Coast and again punters have invested well early and really there are a lot of favorites which really should win as well as races which represent value for both win bettors and exotics players so again I feel this is a meeting to watch. Pakenham and for the 3rd meeting in a row which is unusual for a Sunday the money is very good and again there looks to be value so feeling confident right at this moment but that always can change and we will just have to wait and see how the day pans out. Pt Augusta & Werribee and the early money is OK and on paper there is potential but watch the results here to see if any betting patterns emerge and then move forward from there but hopeful as always that the cards will fall right. Sapphire Coast & Devonport and the early money is really light so I would use some caution with both these meetings and keep a careful eye on the results. And finally Northam and the early money is light but even so I do feel like it will be a favored runners day so it looks ideal for win bettors with exotics players having to shop a little harder to find value.

Final Result - A win and paid out at $422.30 for 100%

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook: Geelong and the early money is good and hopefully it will be smooth sailing at this meeting today as all does look good on paper and fingers are crossed. Sunshine Coast and the early money is good and it does again look a good meeting on paper so really hopeful for the best with just the right amount of luck. Nowra and the early money is just OK which is normal for a country meeting on a Sunday and this program may offer a little value but watch the results to see if any betting patterns occur so there is some promise but with some caution advised. Tamworth and again the early money is OK but as always with this venue a little bit of caution is advised but there might be some value lurking so watch carefully. Penola and the early money is good and hopefully today will run to plan but traditionally Penola can sometimes be a trap so watch the results and go forward from there. Hobart and the early money is barely OK but in good news statistically Hobart seems to go well so there is hope in that but watch the results for patterns. Swan Hill and the early money is just OK early and then it becomes very good late in the day so take heart from that as there does look to be some interesting prospects here. And finally Geraldton and the early money is real light actually non-existent but on the upside there are a lot of favorites running today that should really win so use your head for this meeting and hopefully all will run well.

- The Top 5 Suggested Bets below are the best bets of the day I think are of the best value and they are put there with the absolute clear intention that they will win, but if this happens or not is up to the laws of chance and the elements of luck & fate.

1. Special Suggested Bets Of The Day:

Sunshine Coast Race 2 Banker Exacta:

13 / 3, 6, 14

So its 13 for 1st
and 3, 6, 14 for 2nd.

Total Cost: $12 buys a 400% share of the dividend.

Narrogin Race 4 Banker Exacta:

2 / 4, 10, 9

So its 2 for 1st
and 4, 10, 9 for 2nd.

Total Cost: $12 buys a 400% share of the dividend.

2. Where The Money Is: Those runners which stand out as being well supported early.

Pt Augusta Race 5 No 11 Princess Astro at $7.00 and thiis one is clearly liked early in betting and might be worth the mention and a bit of a watch in this open race.

3. Best Longshot's Of The Day:

Sunshine Coast Race 6 No 11 Tedder Avenue at $10.00 and someone has a real like for this horse early in betting so might be worth a watch at the good eachway odds.

Final Result - Finished 2nd

4. Best Multi Bet Of The Day:

All bets are for the PLACE.

Ballarat Race 7 No 6 | Race 8 No 3 | Race 9 No 13

Suggested Bet: $10

5. Best Quaddie Of The Day:

Narromine Quadrella:

Race 5: 4, 11, 10, 7

Race 6: 3, 7, 11, 5

Race 7: 6, 4, 2, 9

Total Cost: $13 buys a 5% share of the dividend.

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook: Ballarat and the early money is good for a Sunday and it is clear that punters think that it is going to be a short priced runners day and I would tend to agree with them and I am generally happy with today's selections as there is value mixed in amongst them but as always watch the results and move forward from there but with a certain sense of confidence. The Sunshine Coast and the early betting money is good and it is squarely aimed at the favorites and there are a lot of them running today so it is an open prediction of not that many surprises at this meeting unless something goes very wrong indeed. Narromine and the early money is light so watch the results and go forward from there on trust with a certain level of optimistic caution required. Goulburn and the early money is OK and its a mix of favorites and value runners so watch the results to see if any betting patterns emerge. PT Augusta and the early money is just OK and it looks like its going to be a hard meeting to predict as I feel its either going to go very well or crash and burn so the best advice is to watch the results and go from there. And finally Narrogin and some days good things can be found at Narrogin on a Sunday so watch the results a little carefully and make a move from there with a little optimism as quite happy with today's selections now all that's needed is the right luck.

- The Top 5 Suggested Bets below are the best bets of the day I think are of the best value and they are put there with the absolute clear intention that they will win, but if this happens or not is up to the laws of chance and the elements of luck & fate.

1. Special Suggested Bets Of The Day:

Armidale Race 1 Banker Exacta:

1 / 2, 11, 12

So its 1 for 1st
and 2, 11, 12 for 2nd.

Total Cost: $12 buys a 400% share of the dividend.

2. Where The Money Is: Those runners which stand out as being well supported early.

Toowoomba Race 9 No 5 Suzy's Rose at $8.50 and there is enough early betting money flowing to get me a little interested in this runner having its 1st run back from a spell today and I will be watching with some interest.

3. Best Longshot's Of The Day:

Terang Race 2 No 13 Focus On Glory at $51.00 and someone has had a nice go at this one in the early betting so might be worth a small place bet at the $9.00 on offer as an interest.

Total Cost: $13 buys a 5% share of the dividend.

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook: Toowoomba and the early money is good from races 3 onward's and I suspect it will turn out to be a favored runners day at this meeting. Terang and the early money is good with a confident outlook for today's selections but as always watch the results and go from there. Pakenham and there is not a lot of interest in this meeting which is mainly hurdle races but you never know something good may happen so watch the results and make a move from there. Hobart and the punters have deserted this meeting with very low early betting interest so if you are having a bet here use some level of caution. Natacoorte and the early money is OK and there looks to be a bit of sneaky value on this meeting so watch it a little closely. Wagga & Armidale and there is interest there and possible value as well and hopefully both these meetings will run to plan. And finally Geraldton and there is not a lot of early betting interest so watch the results carefully and apply a level of caution.

Sundays Predicted Betting Outlook: Yarra Valley & Benalla are a little light with early money so keep an eye on the results to gauge performance although I will say that the early money is very strong in Yarra Valley races 7 & 9. Scone & Albury have the normal amount of early money you would expect for a Sunday they both are neat meetings so hopefully it will work out that way. Oakbank & the Sunshine Coast both have good early money flowing and I would expect those meetings to go well today. Alice Springs and the money is very light there today but even so it should be a favorites day at this location. And finally Mt Barker where the early money is really light so watch the results for the meeting and take on trust.
